Sworn Circulation of The Times at Various

AT THE OPERAHOUSE—The Lion Tamer.

A destructive tornado swept through Springfield, O., and vicinity yesterday demolishing many buildings and resulting in a considerable loss of life. The tornado is an event of almost daily occurrence in some part of the Eastern or Western States.

A special dispatch from New York has it that George William Curtis, editor of Harper's Weekly, is afflicted with cancer of the stomach, and may not live more than a month or two longer. He is a man of splendid achievements, and the country will do him full honor after he is dead.

The Senate Free Coinage Bill was given its quietus in the House of Representatives yesterday by the defeat of a proposed special rule allowing the measure to be called up. There is no hope for it now in this Congress, as it will repose away down among the dead bills at the foot of the calendar. "Slaughtered in the house of its false friends" should be the epitaph written upon its tombstone. After this all pretense of friendliness on the part of the Democratic party towards the cause of silver will be simply a mockery.

POLITICAL STATISTICS figure out that the popular vote that will be cast for Presidential electors this year is likely to reach 13,000,000. This is based upon the assumption that the entrance into national politics of the People's party will cause a larger percentage of the legal vote to be cast than has been given in late years. In 1888 the popular vote for President was 11,390,542. Of this the Labor Union and United Labor parties cast less than 160,000 votes, but it is believed now that the new party will work with such enthusiasm that every voter unwilling to support the old parties will be brought to the polls.

This false report of the death of William Waldorf Astor, which deceived his New York agent and caused the publication of a death notice in the New York papers, was based upon a forged telegram sent in the name of Mr. Adams, manager of the London office. If Mr. Astor were a heavy operator in stocks we would think it a stock-jobbing scheme engineered by some enterprising bear; but, under the circumstances, it must go as some other kind of a robbing enterprise until more light is thrown upon the matter. When death is invoked to rattle the "bones" it is safe to say that somebody has a game of chance on hand.

It must be that the near approach of Mars, the war planet, is exercising a malign influence upon the people of earth, and particularly upon the people of these United States of America. Certainly the very old Nick seems to be to pay. With bloody riots in Pennsylvania and Idaho, a race war inaugurated in Kentucky and all the ugly animosities which engender throughout the country; with a political campaign in hand which naturally stirs up partisan strife; with a succession of accidents, fires, floods, earthquakes, tornadoes and disastrous storms of other kinds, such as we have not experienced together for generations; with famine and pestilence at work in various quarters of the globe, it certainly seems as though the genies of discord and calamity is abroad. If Mars, the infamous old god of war, is doing this the quicker he puts more distance between himself and this earth the better.

The Herald, which has no desire to meet our discussion of the labor problem on a rational basis, and feeling that its jingoism and demagoguery have been laid bare, gratifies its spleen by attacking the motives of this paper in opening its columns to the presentation of various shades of opinion on this absorbing topic. It is no new thing for THE TIMES to allow to correspondents a wide latitude in discussing matters of public interest, provided the discussion is carried on with courtesy and fairness. As to our correspondent "Jayhawker," he is responsible for such ideas as appear over his own signature, and they are not dictated or colored to suit anybody's views except his own. They may differ occasionally from the editorial opinions of the paper, but that need not deter them from publication any more than in the case of other correspondents. Col. Woodward is a lawyer of recognized ability and his suggestion of a plan for the arbitration of labor differences ought to have weight.

accomplish your purpose by irregular methods will be construed into an infraction of law, and you will certainly be punished therefor."

Labor and Capital stand before the country today in the position of two disputants. They have quarreled over their mutual interests so many times and patched up their differences only to quarrel again, that we might as well concede the point that there is no hope of permanent peace so long as these matters are left in their hands for settlement. The time has certainly come when it is necessary for the umpire to interfere in the interest of both parties to these recurring controversies and in the interest of the community at large.

As a tribunal is established for the adjustment of differences between individuals, firms and artificial persons (corporations), why not have a tribunal to settle wholesale differences between opposing classes? If our courts are now constituted are not competent to take cognizance of these wholesale differences we may extend the jurisdiction or establish other tribunals.

As matters now stand, we cannot blame or punish people very severely for quarreling over matters which must necessarily be left open to dispute. Let us carefully define the rights of capital and the rights of labor, subject to correction if any mistakes are made; let us provide tribunals to which future disputes not simply can be but must be appealed; let us provide a comprehensive code of laws, and then insist on their rigid enforcement.

It would not be feasible for such governmental regulations to lean too much to the side of either labor or capital. If the former were oppressed it would lead to such public agitation as would secure a correction. If capital were oppressed it would have the same right of protest. If the oppression were systematic it would cause business failures and the retirement of capital, so that labor would be the sufferer. Then both sides would insist on a readjustment.

An objection may be raised that these functions are too delicate to be undertaken by the Government; that it would be paternalistic in an odious form; that it would so interfere with trade and manufactures as to stifle these enterprises. We fail to see how this would result if the adjustment were equitable as to all parties affected. Capital itself would enjoy better protection and a more certain reward. Labor would be protected by law and would not have to waste its substance in fighting single-handed for its rights.

Three alternatives are open to us. First, to let matters drift as they have been doing, and take the consequences; second to provide arbitration in some unofficial or semi-official way (which would not be respected); third to devise a system of arbitration and enforce it by law. Of the three the last seems to us the most feasible, the most likely to secure justice all the way round and to eradicate the evils which now beset the country. An agitation looking to something in this way should be started at once and kept up until our present faulty system is mended. That is the only way to secure permanent peace and prosperity.

THE TELEPHONE IN THE UNITED STATES.

A census bulletin giving statistics of the telephone business in the United States is at hand and it shows, naturally, a remarkable development during the past decade. In 1880 the invention had just got fairly before the country, and, filling as it did an acknowledged and general want, its adoption was speedily effected. It is notable that the centralizing tendency of American corporations is strongly manifested in this industry, for, while the capital invested has increased from $14,605,787 in 1880 to $72,841,736 in 1890, or 499 per cent—the number of companies, firms and persons reporting has decreased from 148 to 53. Other items are as follows:

1880. 1890. Increase.

Gross earnings, $3,098,081; $16,494,583; $13,396,302.

Gross expenses, $2,373,703; $11,143,871; $8,770,168.

Net earnings, $724,378; $5,350,712; $4,626,134.

Number of exchanges, 437; 1,241; 804.

Number of telephones, 19,628; 467,356; 388,718.

Miles of wire, 34,336; 240,413; 206,107.

Number of subscribers, 3,338; 8,645; 5,307.

Number of operators, 45,414; 227,357; 178,943.

Number of connections, 453,200,000.

Owing to the expiration of the patents on the principal features of the telephone next year we apprehend that the development of the next decade will prove as remarkable as that of the last. The tendency will be to increase greatly the number of operating companies, and, with competition, lower rates and improvements in the service by the introduction of new devices; the ramifications of the business will be vastly extended. Communities which cannot sustain a system now will have it, and thousands of individuals in the cities now provided with a service will be able to introduce the system into their residences and places of business at lessened rates. If this business makes another jump, say to double its present proportions, which is quite reasonable to expect, it will represent in 1900 an investment of about $145,000,000.

Investors held upon the bodies of several victims of the recent powder explosion at West Berkeley have failed to elicit any reasonable explanation of the accident. William H. Williams, the engineer, testified that he was looking at the nitro-glycerine house a few seconds before the explosion occurred. He then saw Jack Bove sweeping out a trough and making a clean-up. "It is my duty to watch for fumes," said Williams, "but I saw none three seconds before the explosion. Everything appeared to be all right in the house when I looked that way." Superintendent Frank Roller testified that the men employed were thoroughly trained, sober and careful. He feels confident that the first explosion occurred in the nitro-glycerine house or in the wash house adjoining, and he can see no reason why it should have been the result of carelessness. When asked how he supposed the explosion occurred, he answered: "It must have been a visitation from God." This is an explanation which does not explain anything.

Whether a visitation from God or not it must have come about through the operation of natural laws. It is possible that there are chemical reactions not yet thoroughly understood which operate as does spontaneous combustion with certain materials, and this cause these mysterious explosions. Or, it is possible that natural currents of electricity play a part in them. Not long ago we had an example of oil tanks at Oil City and Titusville exploded by such action when a tornado passed through. The tanks were not struck by lightning in the accepted sense, but electricity from the earth or from the overcharged clouds passed through them and caused the mischief. Here is a hypothesis which is worth investigating. It may be that the powder works and magazines of the future will be insulated.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

GRAND OPERAHOUSE.—The third performance of The Merry Monarch by Francis Wilson and his company, though not quite so well attended as either of its predecessors, was fully as enthusiastically received last night, and judging from the manner in which those who have already seen the comedian sound his praises, there is every reason for the belief that there will be full houses for the remainder of the week. Tonight The Lion Tamer, Mr. Wilson's latest success, will be produced for the first time here.

The Omaha ticket is funnier than the Minneapolis ticket. But the Chicago comedian is a bigger joke than either.—[New York Recorder.]

The trouble with the New York Sun is that its editor, while an experienced fisherman, has the bad habit of "carrying the bait in his mouth."

The People's party has a long platform, but it is no longer a party of the future. It is a party of the present.—[Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette.]

Cleveland Stevenson does not flow trippingly on the tongue. A Democrat with a few drinks inside of him could never produce such a stammer.—[New York Times.]

A party that looked three months for a "good Western man" and then chose Adlai Stevenson should be operated on for strabismus without delay.—[St. Paul Pioneer-Press.]

Whatever is and is wrong is because of protection. Whatever is and is right is in spite of it. There you have the sum of most Democratic arguments.—[Milwaukee Sentinel.]

Ex-Gov. Campbell of Ohio says that if the Democrats can't win this year they had better quit. On this principle they could save money and worry by quitting before the campaign opens.

Of the four Presidential nominees Harrison, Cleveland, McKinley and Stevenson, only Cleveland is a native of Ohio. Mr. Cleveland's grandfather was, it is claimed, an Ohio man, but for present purposes that doesn't count.

Grover Cleveland went fishing on the Fourth of July, as he did on Memorial day. He was President. He will undoubtedly go fishing on election day when November comes around. But what will he catch?—[Chicago Mail.]

This is no exaggeration in the quality of Candidate Stevenson's Democracy. He was so good a Democrat at the outbreak of the war that he wouldn't take up arms for the Union flag for fear he might shoot some of his own people.—[New York Times.]

Mr. James B. Weaver, who has just been nominated for President by the so-called People's party, has made a trip to Salt Lake before he was the Greenback candidate for President in 1890. He was up to the hilt in the party, and only 4,148,244 votes.

SILVER'S WATERLOO.

Free Coinage Men Decisively Defeated in the House.

The Resolution to Take Up the Stewart Bill Voted Down.

No Prospect of Any Silver Legislation at this Session.

The Senate Says the Government Exhibit at the World's Fair Must Be Closed on Sundays and no Liquor Sold.

By Telegraph to the Times.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—The Senate on assembling took up the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill. The pending question was Mr. Quay's motion for the adoption of an amendment, closing the World's Fair on Sunday. A motion to lay it on the table was defeated—11 to 45. Mr. Quay's amendment was then agreed to without division.

Mr. Peffer offered an amendment prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors.

Mr. Vest ridiculed the amendment, saying, that to be consistent it should include cigarette smoking.

The question was taken and Mr. Peffer's amendment was agreed to—yeas, 28; nays, 26. The vote in detail was as follows:

Yeas—Allen, Allison, Carey, Chandler, Colquhoun, Culm, Feltz, Frye, Hallock, Linger, Hale, Hansbrough, Hawley, Gillingham, Jones (Nev.), Mitchell, Paddock, Palmer, Peffer, Perkins, Pettigrew, Platt, Sanders, Sherman, Stewart, Stockbridge and Walcott—28.

Nays—Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Blodgett, Brice, Cameron, Cockrell, Coke, Daniel, George, Gibson (La.), Gibson (Md.), Gray, Hutton, Kenna, Manderson, Power, Ryan, Ransom, Villard, Voorhees, Wall and White—26.

Mr. Allison's amendment limiting the gross expenditures for medals, clerical aid, etc., to $500,000 was agreed to.

Mr. White offered an amendment giving the United States precedence in repayment of sums advanced. Rejected.

The question was then taken and the exposition amendments were agreed to—yeas 51, nays 14. The yeas were: Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Blodgett, Butler, Carlisle, Cockrell, Coke, George, Harris, Irby, Jones (Ark.), Vest and Walthall.

Mr. Pettigrew offered an amendment for the appointment of two additional commissioners, and altered the bill to give the United States precedence in repayment of sums advanced. Rejected.

How Several Bad Boys Were Gathered In.

The Dog Poisoner is Again at His Work.

Francis Wilson Pays Pasadena a Visit—Various Items of Local Interest—Personal Notes and Briefs.

The Carlton parlors were filled with an assemblage of women to the number of about fifty yesterday afternoon to discuss the work of preparing a local exhibit for the World's Fair. Mrs. E. B. Dexter, who was chosen president at the last meeting, occupied the chair, and Mrs. E. B. Farr served in her official capacity as secretary.

After the reports of the last meeting had been read, the personnel of the several committees was taken. Some verbal and written resignations were read. In some cases the vacancies were filled, and in other instances the chairmen were authorized to fill the places as persons resigned in their respective committees.

Mrs. Farr read an interesting letter from Mrs. Cole of Los Angeles, warmly commending the work as carried on here. Another letter was read from Chicago, in which was detailed a plan whereby ladies visiting the fair may obtain desirable quarters at reasonable rates.

It was decided to hold regular meetings at the Carlton parlors every alternate Thursday. A special meeting will be held next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, on which occasion Mrs. Cole will be present. The meeting then adjourned. Each committee expects to have its line of work definitely outlined by Mrs. Cole, and then operations will begin in earnest. A feature of the meeting was an eloquent address by Mrs. Jeanne Carr in favor of having an adobe house built on the grounds allotted to California's exhibit. The idea met with universal favor, and the committee was appointed to use their best efforts to put it into execution.

IT MAY NEVER HAPPEN AGAIN. Not far from Sycamore Grove a party of small boys stationed themselves near the Terminal tracks yesterday morning, and when the noon train from Pasadena came along they amused themselves by throwing stones at it. Doing this they were arrested by Conductor Hargis and taken to the station.

Conductor Judge and Brakeman Defriez were in dangerous proximity. Then the fun began. "Jack" Defriez is a sprightly national reputation, and handsomely Mr. Judge, who is the idol of the ladies for miles around, is no slouch of a runner himself. After the latter barked heavily on the boys without reaching distance and in less than a minute he was in the hands of the police.

MEANS OF THE CHORAL SOCIETY. The programme of the Choral Society's concert, which will be given at the opera house tomorrow evening, has been arranged, and is as follows: "Chorus, 'Thine is the Kingdom,'" from The Holy City, by Sullivan; "Chorus, 'The Hallelujah Chorus,'" from The Messiah, by Handel; "Chorus, 'The Hallelujah Chorus,'" from The Messiah, by Handel; "Chorus, 'The Hallelujah Chorus,'" from The Messiah, by Handel.

THE DOG POISONER. The dog poisoner, one of the meanest and most cowardly species of humanity that exists—is again about. The latest victim is a valuable dog owned by Frank Polley, which was highly prized by the family and was anything but vicious or deserving of the fate that befell him on Tuesday in the form of a big dose of poison, administered by some unknown party. Mr. Polley offers a liberal reward for the name of the person or persons who did the dirty work, and as he does not seek redress in court of law, he will not ask for technical proof before paying for the information.

PASADENA BRUIVES. The school board of trustees held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the Wilson school building. A large number of Pasadena people went in to see Francis Wilson in The Merry Monarch last night.

George Webster is superintending improvements at the Acme, which are progressing rapidly. The small locomotives are not in it now to any great extent on the Pasadena branch of the Terminal road.

The Express states that the cut completed through the hill at the end of the Downey avenue cable line makes a much shorter route to Pasadena than by the old Arroyo Seco road. The Express is talking through its hat.

Disgraceful Scene in Which Two Supervisors Figured.

A Newspaper Editor Abused by the Official—Meeting of the Riverside Water Company—A Fashionable Wedding—News Notes.

SAN BERNARDINO. At the meeting of the City Trustees on Tuesday night Health Officer Wainwright reported a disgraceful condition of the city sewer, where it empties into Worm Creek south of the city.

At a union meeting at the Baptist Church on Tuesday, to consider what action should be taken to secure the closing of billiard parlors, a committee was appointed to investigate the legality of the action it is proposed to secure. There is no Sunday law in California, and it will be a difficult matter to proceed against an innocent amusement like billiards.

POMONA. There are rumors of a disruption in the city council, when it meets on Wednesday. In a short time. One of the Councilmen, who is an anti-saloon man, is about to leave Pomona, which will leave the Council composed of two high-saloon men and two anti-saloon men. Where the city begins when a new man is to be appointed, it will be the Council's duty to appoint a man to fill the vacancy. It is hardly likely that the two high-saloon members will vote to elect a saloon man, and in that case the voting strength of Pomona will be known to a man.

THE AIR WAS BLUE. Editor Haskell of the Times-Index went yesterday, as usual, to get the minutes of the meeting of the Board of County Supervisors. He was met by Messrs. J. N. Victor and L. W. Lord, the only members of the board present. Mr. Haskell, who is a saloon man, was met by Mr. Victor, who is a saloon man, and they had a conversation in the hall, which was not very pleasant.

LONG BEACH. Resolving Out for the National Guard Encampment—The New Guard. The strains of martial music from a band stationed on the platform of the Terminal depot at Long Beach greeted the passengers of the train which arrived yesterday as they alighted on the bluff, beyond which sparkled the blue waves of the Pacific dancing in the sunshine. The musical greeting was intended, not for the passengers in general, but for a party of gentlemen who had come down to see about arranging for the annual encampment of the Seventh Regiment, N.G.C.

THE LONG BEACH CITIZENS felt rather elated over the prospect of the new wharf which is to reach out 1081 feet into the ocean from the foot of Pine street. The shore end will be twenty feet wide, gradually spreading to sixty feet, giving ample room for the anchorage of the fleet. The tide water is twenty-three feet deep at the end of the wharf. The town has voted $15,000 for this pier, and when it is finished it will be the peer of any summer resort wharf of Southern California.

THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE RIVERSIDE WATER COMPANY met Tuesday at the company's office, having been called together to consider the report of the board of directors. The report was read, and the stockholders voted to accept the report. The company has a total bonded indebtedness of $300,000, making a total bonded indebtedness of $1,000,000. The reason assigned for the need for the extra bonds is to pay off the present indebtedness and extend and improve the water system. The forenoon was spent in reading the minutes of the last meeting of the stockholders and board of directors, and the call and other routine business. In the afternoon the proposition of issuing the bonds was discussed, and on a vote of 18,236 bonds voting for, and but 273 against issuing the bonds.

The First Fruit for Orange County's World's Fair Exhibit—A Unique Entertainment in Preparation—Notes and Personal.

SANTA ANA. Orange county again steps to the front in sensational matters with a case of first-class kidnaping in which Los Angeles parties are principals. The victim is a young girl, who was given in charge of the father at the time of the separation, and as he had no home for the child it was sent to Mrs. Levison Coblentz, mother of Mr. Coblentz, in the city until a home could be provided for her. Mrs. Coblentz concluded that she wanted her child and came to this city Tuesday to regain possession of her. She visited the home of Mrs. Levison Coblentz and requested her to give up the child, but was refused. Mrs. Coblentz, who is a native of Los Angeles, returned early in the evening, and as she approached the house, she was met by a man who was armed with a revolver. She was taken to a room, and the child was taken away. Mrs. Coblentz is now in the city, and is waiting for the child to be returned to her.

During the past week a large number of seals at Seal Rock have been killed by Italian fishermen. So great has been the slaughter that the herd will soon be exterminated unless prompt measures are taken to preserve them. Seal Rock has always been a favorite spot for visitors and has done a great deal to make the island known to the public. The number of seals which make their headquarters there, the fishermen claim that their nets are destroyed by the seals and several of the men have been killed by the animals. The Wilmington Transportation Company proposes to take measures to stop the seals from coming to the island, and any law under which they can be prosecuted the fishermen who slaughter seals will be given the full benefit.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY.

Meeting of the San Bernardino Trustees.

The Usual Routine City Business Disposed of.

Disgraceful Scene in Which Two Supervisors Figured.

A Newspaper Editor Abused by the Official—Meeting of the Riverside Water Company—A Fashionable Wedding—News Notes.

SAN BERNARDINO. At the meeting of the City Trustees on Tuesday night Health Officer Wainwright reported a disgraceful condition of the city sewer, where it empties into Worm Creek south of the city.

At a union meeting at the Baptist Church on Tuesday, to consider what action should be taken to secure the closing of billiard parlors, a committee was appointed to investigate the legality of the action it is proposed to secure. There is no Sunday law in California, and it will be a difficult matter to proceed against an innocent amusement like billiards.

POMONA. There are rumors of a disruption in the city council, when it meets on Wednesday. In a short time. One of the Councilmen, who is an anti-saloon man, is about to leave Pomona, which will leave the Council composed of two high-saloon men and two anti-saloon men. Where the city begins when a new man is to be appointed, it will be the Council's duty to appoint a man to fill the vacancy. It is hardly likely that the two high-saloon members will vote to elect a saloon man, and in that case the voting strength of Pomona will be known to a man.

THE AIR WAS BLUE. Editor Haskell of the Times-Index went yesterday, as usual, to get the minutes of the meeting of the Board of County Supervisors. He was met by Messrs. J. N. Victor and L. W. Lord, the only members of the board present. Mr. Haskell, who is a saloon man, was met by Mr. Victor, who is a saloon man, and they had a conversation in the hall, which was not very pleasant.

LONG BEACH. Resolving Out for the National Guard Encampment—The New Guard. The strains of martial music from a band stationed on the platform of the Terminal depot at Long Beach greeted the passengers of the train which arrived yesterday as they alighted on the bluff, beyond which sparkled the blue waves of the Pacific dancing in the sunshine. The musical greeting was intended, not for the passengers in general, but for a party of gentlemen who had come down to see about arranging for the annual encampment of the Seventh Regiment, N.G.C.

THE LONG BEACH CITIZENS felt rather elated over the prospect of the new wharf which is to reach out 1081 feet into the ocean from the foot of Pine street. The shore end will be twenty feet wide, gradually spreading to sixty feet, giving ample room for the anchorage of the fleet. The tide water is twenty-three feet deep at the end of the wharf. The town has voted $15,000 for this pier, and when it is finished it will be the peer of any summer resort wharf of Southern California.

In view of the fact that not one of the new rooms on the upper floor of the Federal building on Main Street has even been completed as yet, the order from headquarters entails an immense amount of work and discomfort on the local officials. All the furniture, fixtures and fixtures have to be taken along and fixed up for temporary use.

Take away— sick headache, bilious headache, dizziness, constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. It's a large contract, but the smallest things in the world do the business—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're the smallest, but the most effective. They go to work in the right way. They cleanse and renovate the system thoroughly—but they do it mildly and gently. You feel the good they do—but you don't feel them doing it. As a Liver Pill, they're unequalled. Sugar-coated, easy to take, and put up in vials, and mechanically sealed, and thus always fresh and reliable.

Small, perfect, yet powerful, in small vials, and only one necessary for a laxative or three for a cathartic. They're the cheapest pill you can buy, because they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more? That's the peculiar plan all Dr. Pierce's medicines are sold on, through druggists.
